

Hi sayang,

I know I've been a jerk. You constantly think that I don't think about the things that I've done towards you but truth be told, I do. It doesn't seem like it, yes, but I do feel bad. I know what I did was wrong and I know that it's not the right thing to do but I did it anyway. Growing up, I've always promised myself not to do such things but I did anyway and to do it to you is a very shit move. I'm sorry.

Look, I know that I only have 1 week left with you but I also think that if I were to do things right, maybe I'll have more than just a week. Really hope future me is doing good. I'm not kidding and I'm completely serious when I say that I really want to be with you. I want to mend things and build back our foundation. You've mentioned it time and again that you don't want to try with me again and I completely understand but I promise I'll do better this time around. Promise. Bet you don't believe any of my promises anymore now. That's okay though. You've always said actions speaks louder than words so this is why I'm doing this.

By this time, you've probably already thought that this website I said I was coding is for person who shall not be named but in all honesty, it's for you. I'd probably get shit on for this so if this website was given to you any time before the 31st, I'm probably in big trouble. Cut future me some slack, okay? This website has always been coded for you.
